

LEOŠ JANČIK

Već od ranog djetinjstva Leoš je bio okružen psima. Obitelj se bavila uzgojem Njemačkih doga i Škotskih ovčara duge dlake. Prvog psa kojeg je kupio te započeo svoj dvadesetogodišnji uzgoj bila je Toy Pudla bijela.

1983. godine kupuje prvog Njemačkog špica, i od tog trenutka ih uzgaja. 1989 je kupio i Sibirskog Haskijate seta, a također 20 godina bavio uzgojem i tepasmine. U istom razdoblju počinje uzgajati i Čivave i Boston Terijere. Postao je predsjednik Kluba za Čivave i Kluba za Boston Terijere u Češkoj.

1989. godine počinje svoju sudačku karijeru, uskoro postaje sudac za sve pasmine. Sudio je najvažnije izložbe u svojoj domovini, a neke od zemlja u kojima je sudio su Njemačka, Austrija, Poljska, Rusija, Ukrajina, Bjelorusija, Finska, Švedska, Hrvatska, Slovenija, Crna Gora, Mađarska, Rumunjska, Estonija, Litva, Latvija, Moldavija, Danska, Italija ... Sudio je i na Svjetskoj izložbi pasa u Salzburgu 2012. godine. Također je dobio poziv za suđenje Svjetske izložbe pasa 2014. godine u Helsinkiju.

From early childhood he was surrounded by dogs. His family was breeding Great Danes and Collie Rough. First dog that he bought and began its 20-year-long breeding Toy Poodle white.

In 1983 he purchased first German Spitz and from that moment started breeding them as well. In 1989 he bought the Siberian Husky and got involved in breeding which lasted for 20 years. In the same period begins to breed Chihuahua and Boston Terrier. He became president of Chihuahua Club and Boston Terrier Club of the Czech Republic.

In 1989 he began his judging career, and soon becomes an All-round judge. He judged all the most important shows in Czech Republic and some of the country in which he has judged are: Germany, Austria, Poland, Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Finland, Sweden, Croatia, Slovenia, Montenegro, Hungary, Romania, Estonia, Lithuania, Latvia, Moldova, Denmark, Italy ... He judged at the World Dog Show in Salzburg in 2012. He also received an invitation for judging at the World Dog Show which will be held in Helsinki 2014.